

and others," is hereby amended by adding to section twelve of said chapter, as follows: "and any person or persons who shall perform any manual labor in digging, making or constructing any fountain or well upon the premises or land of another, shall have the same right of lien upon the lands whereon the same is dug, made or constructed for the value of said labor, as is given to bricklayers, carpenters, lumber merchants and others; and the said lien may be carried into force and effect pursuant to the provisions contained in said chapter." Well-diggers to have lien.

SECTION 2. So much of any act as contravenes the provisions of this act is hereby repealed.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 6, 1869.

CHAPTER 102.

[Published March 9, 1869.]

AN ACT in regard to the location of a state normal school at Stoughton, Dane county.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The board of regents of normal schools are hereby authorized and directed to allow the proposition made to said board for the location of a normal school at the village of Stoughton, in the county of Dane, to be reduced in amount to the sum of thirty thousand dollars, inclusive of the land now embraced in the proposition upon which said board fixed the location of said school. Board of regents may reduce amount to be raised by village of Stoughton.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 6, 1869.